

TAKES SIX DAYS TO PROCURE PERMIT TO BUY SHIRT IN RUSSIA

(Correspondence Associated Press)

PETROGRAD, July 20.—The difficulties bedeviling in existence of those who live in Petrograd during these times of disturbed regime and shortage in necessities of life, extend in all their details to the ordinarily simple task of buying a shirt. To accomplish this takes time, patience and determination.

If one is quite lucky, after five or six days time, he receives a duly signed and sealed permit to buy a shirt. Then he buys it, but ordinarily pays the Russian equivalent of $15 or $20. Some of the poorest quality, may be found as low as the Russian equivalent of $5.

This restriction of purchase extends to all major articles of men's and women's clothing and shoes, and, recently, because of the linen and cotton goods shortage, was applied to the State Engineer of Nevada for permission to appropriate the public waters of the State of Nevada. Such application is to be made to the Tzarina. Starting at a point on unsurveyed land about 1½ miles northwesterly from Tolicha Mountain at Latitude 37 deg. North and Longitude 116 deg. 50 min. from Greenwich, by means of pipes and one-twentieth cubic foot per second is to be conveyed to a point on unsurveyed land about 1½ miles northwesterly from Tolicha Mountain, at Latitude 37 deg. 16 min. North, and Longitude 116 deg. 50 min. West from Greenwich, the means of pipes, and troughs, and tanks used for stock watering purposes. Water not to be returned to stream.

shirt. If the house committee passes favorably on the subject, it so reports to the precinct or district "soviet" or commune. This in turn reports to the commissary in charge of the distribution of shirts and kindred articles of clothing.

If one is quite lucky, after five or six days time, he receives a duly signed and sealed permit to buy a shirt. Then he buys it, but ordinarily pays the Russian equivalent of $10.

First, one must find the shirt. One may visit forty shops before he finds one of the proper size. The question of preference of style is not to be considered for one moment. Otherwise one will never get the shirt. Having found something that resembles a shirt of the proper size, one deposits a small payment to hold it.

The next thing is to convince one's house committee—there is a committee in every apartment house in Petrograd now—that he needs a
